THE NICHOLAS DANBY TRUST
AT SOUTHWARK CATHEDRAL
THURSDAY 23RD MAY AT 7PM

The trustees invite you to join them for the Retirement Recital of their distinguished colleague, Peter Wright, the celebrated Organist & Director of Music at Southwark since 1989. The Cathedral organ is a masterpiece of romantic organ building by T.C. Lewis (1897) and the programme will include works by Bach, Franck and Lemaire. Following the concert there will be a candlelit Soirée in the retrochoir, the most ancient and rarely used part of the cathedral (c. 1212).

Tickets for the concert and Soirée: £50.00 (this sum covers the cost only to the Trust per person for the concert and Soirée – finger buffet and wine – but does not include a donation. If you would like to add a donation to the Trust, please fill in as necessary below - and thank you!)

We hope to see you!
